

I am in full support of the SBC application. The executive team has proven time and again that they are sensitive to the needs of their customers and have throughout the process behaved with integrity and displayed excellent character. Consumers will benefit if the application is approved. Thank you.